CIVIL ACTION

FILE No. _____

COMPLAINT

COMES NOW, ALEXANDER CORDERO, by and through the undersigned counsel, and files this, his Complaint against Defendant LG SUGARLOAF PROMENADE, LLC pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. (“ADA”) and the ADA’s Accessibility Guidelines, 28 C.F.R. Part 36 (“ADAAG”). In support thereof, Plaintiff respectfully shows this Court as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original jurisdiction over the action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343 for Plaintiff’s claims pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq., based upon Defendant’s failure to remove physical barriers to access and violations of Title III of the ADA.

2. Venue is proper in the federal District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff ALEXANDER CORDERO (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) is, and has been at all times relevant to the instant matter, a natural person residing in Lawrenceville, Georgia (Gwinnett County).

4. Plaintiff is a paraplegic and is disabled as defined by the ADA.

5. Plaintiff is required to traverse in a wheelchair and is substantially limited in performing one or more major life activities, including but not limited to: walking and standing.

6. Plaintiff cannot walk and uses a wheelchair for mobility purposes.

7. Defendant LG SUGARLOAF PROMENADE, LLC (hereinafter “Defendant”) is a Delaware limited liability company that transacts business in the state of Georgia and within this judicial district.

8. Defendant may be properly served with process via its registered agent for service, to wit: Douglas Krevolin, Esq., 1201 W. Peachtree Street, Suite 3250, Atlanta, Georgia 30309.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

9. On or about December 11, 2023, Plaintiff was a customer at “Dunkin’,” a business located at 4955 Sugar Loaf Parkway, Lawrenceville, Georgia 30044.

10. Defendant is the owner or co-owner of the real property and improvements that are the subject of this action. (The structures and improvements situated upon said real property shall be referenced herein as the “Facility,” and said real property shall be referenced herein as the “Property”).

11. Plaintiff lives approximately seven (7) miles from the Facility and Property.

12. Plaintiff’s access to the businesses located at 4955 Sugar Loaf Parkway, Lawrenceville, Georgia 30044 (identified by Gwinnett County Property Appraiser’s parcel number R7035 067), and/or full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, foods, drinks, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein were denied and/or limited because of his disabilities, and he will be denied and/or limited in the future unless and until Defendant is compelled to remove the physical barriers to access and correct the ADA violations that exist at the Facility and Property, including those set forth in this Complaint.

13. Plaintiff has visited the Facility and Property at least once before and intends on revisiting the Facility once the Facility and Property are brought into compliance with the 2010 ADAAG standards.

14. Plaintiff intends to revisit the Facility and Property to purchase goods and/or services.

15. Plaintiff travelled to the Facility and Property as a customer and as an advocate for the disabled, encountered the barriers to his access of the Facility and Property that are detailed in this Complaint, engaged those barriers, suffered legal harm and legal injury, and will continue to suffer such harm and injury as a result of the illegal barriers to access present at the Facility and Property.

COUNT I
VIOLATIONS OF THE ADA AND ADAAG

16. On July 26, 1990, Congress enacted the Americans with Disabilities Act 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq. (the “ADA”).

17. The ADA provided places of public accommodation one and a half years from its enactment to implement its requirements.

18. The effective date of Title III of the ADA was January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993 (if a defendant has 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). 42 U.S.C. § 12181; 28 C.F.R. § 36.508(a).

19. The Facility is a public accommodation and service establishment.

20. The Property is a public accommodation and service establishment.

21. Pursuant to the mandates of 42 U.S.C. § 12134(a), on July 26, 1991, the Department of Justice and Office of Attorney General promulgated federal regulations to implement the requirements of the ADA. 28 C.F.R. Part 36.

22. Public accommodations were required to conform to these regulations by January 26, 1992 (or by January 26, 1993 if a defendant has 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq.; 28 C.F.R. § 36.508(a).

23. Liability for violations under Title III or the ADA falls on “any person who owns, leases (or leases to), or operates a place of public accommodation.” 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

24. The Facility must be, but is not, in compliance with the ADA and ADAAG.

25. The Property must be, but is not, in compliance with the ADA and ADAAG.

26. Plaintiff has attempted to, and has to the extent possible, accessed the Facility and the Property in his capacity as a customer of the Facility and Property, and as an advocate for the disabled, but could not fully do so because of his disabilities resulting from the physical barriers to access, dangerous conditions and ADA violations that exist at the Facility and Property that preclude and/or limit his access to the Facility and Property and/or the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein, including those barriers, conditions and ADA violations more specifically set forth in this Complaint.

27. Plaintiff intends to visit the Facility and Property again in the future as a customer and as an advocate for the disabled in order to utilize all of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations commonly offered at the Facility and Property, but will be unable to fully do so because of his disability and the physical barriers to access, dangerous conditions and ADA violations that exist at the Facility and Property that preclude and/or limit his access to the Facility and Property and/or the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein, including those barriers, conditions and ADA violations more specifically set forth in this Complaint.

28. Defendant has discriminated against Plaintiff (and others with disabilities) by denying his access to, and full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations of the Facility and Property, as prohibited by, and by failing to remove architectural barriers as required by, 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv).

29. Defendant will continue to discriminate against Plaintiff and others with disabilities unless and until Defendant is compelled to remove all physical barriers that exist at the Facility and Property, including those specifically set forth herein, and make the Facility and Property accessible to and usable by Plaintiff and other persons with disabilities.

30. A specific list of unlawful physical barriers, dangerous conditions and ADA violations which Plaintiff experienced and/or observed that precluded and/or limited Plaintiff's access to the Facility and Property and the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and accommodations of the Facility and Property include, but are not limited to:

(a) EXTERIOR ELEMENTS:

- (i) The accessible parking space sign most proximate to the Dunkin Donuts portion of the Facility is not installed at a permissible height, in violation of section 502.6 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (ii) The accessible parking space on the Property most proximate to the Dunkin Donuts portion of the Facility and its adjacent access aisle each have a slope in excess of 1:48 (one to forty-eight), in violation of section 502.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (iii) The access aisle adjacent to the accessible parking space on the Property most proximate to the Dunkin Donuts portion of the Facility has excessive vertical rises within its boundaries, in violation of section 502.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.

- (iv) The ramp on the Property most proximate to the Dunkin Donuts portion of the Facility is improperly installed and does not provide for a 36" (thirty-six inch) clear and level landing, in violation of section 406.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This ramp also has a running slope in excess of 1:12 (one to twelve), in violation of section 405.2 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (v) The ground surface within the wheelchair maneuvering clearance area at the entrance of the Dunkin Donuts portion of the Facility has improper changes in level, in violation of section 404.2.4.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (vi) Numerous portions of the accessible route on the Property between the tenant space of the Facility have cross-slopes in excess of 1:48 (one to forty-eight), in violation of section 403.2 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (vii) The accessible parking space sign most proximate to the Eye Level Learning portion of the Facility is not installed at the proper height, in violation of section 502.6 of the 2010

ADAAG standards.

- (viii) The accessible parking space on the Property most proximate to the Eye Level Learning portion of the Facility and its adjacent access aisle each have a slope in excess of 1:48 (one to forty-eight), in violation of section 502.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (ix) The ramp on the Property most proximate to the Eye Level Learning portion of the Facility does not provide for a 36" (thirty-six inch) clear and level landing, in violation of section 405.7 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (x) The exterior of the Taqueria Los Hermanos portion of the Facility does not provide for a minimum of 5% (five percent) of the dining surfaces utilized for consumption of food or drink that comply with section 902.2 of the 2010 ADAAG standards, requiring appropriate knee and toe clearance thereunder as set forth in section 306 of the 2010 ADAAG standards, positioned for a forward approach, in violation of section 226.1 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.

(b) INTERIOR ELEMENTS:

- (i) The Taqueria Los Hermanos portion of the Facility has no seating within reasonable proximity to the bar offering dining surfaces provided for consumption of food or drink which complies with section 902.2 of the 2010 ADAAG standards, requiring appropriate knee and toe clearance complying with section 306 of the 2010 ADAAG standards, positioned for a forward approach, in violation of section 226.1 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (ii) The hand operated flush controls on the commodes in the accessible toilet stalls in the restrooms in the Taqueria Los Hermanos portion of the Facility are not located on the open side of the accessible stalls, in violation of section 604.6 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (iii) The height of the coat hooks located in the restroom stalls in the restrooms in the Taqueria Los Hermanos portion of the Facility are above 48” (forty-eight inches) from the finished floor, in violation of section 308.2.1 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (iv) The Illusion Cafe portion of the Facility has no seating within reasonable proximity to the bar offering dining surfaces provided for consumption of food or drink that comply with section 902.2 of the 2010 ADAAG standards, requiring appropriate knee and toe clearance complying with section 306 of the 2010 ADAAG standards, positioned for a forward approach, in violation of section 226.1 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.

- (v) The restroom doors in the Illusion Cafe portion of the Facility require an opening force in excess of 5 lbs. (five pounds), in violation of section 309.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (vi) The locking mechanism located in the restroom in the Illusion Cafe portion of the Facility is located above 48" (forty-eight inches) from the finished floor, in violation of section 308.2.1 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- (vii) The grab bars adjacent to the commodes in the restrooms in the Illusion Cafe portion of the Facility are not adequately sized and are improperly installed, in violation of section 604.5 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. Specifically, the rear grab bar is too short.

(viii) The height of the coat hooks located in the restrooms in the Illusion Cafe portion of the Facility are above 48” (forty-eight inches) from the finished floor, in violation of section 308.2.1 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.

31. Without limitation, the above-described violations of the ADAAG made it more difficult for Plaintiff to exit and re-enter his vehicle while on the Property, more difficult and dangerous for Plaintiff to utilize the ramps on the Property, and more difficult and dangerous for Plaintiff to travel upon the exterior accessible routes on the Property.

32. The violations enumerated above may not be a complete list of the barriers, conditions or violations encountered by Plaintiff and/or which exist at the Facility and Property.

33. Plaintiff requires an inspection of Facility and Property in order to determine all of the discriminatory conditions present at the Facility and Property in violation of the ADA.

34. The removal of the physical barriers, dangerous conditions and ADA violations alleged herein is readily achievable and can be accomplished and carried out without significant difficulty or expense. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv); 42 U.S.C. § 12181(9); 28 C.F.R. § 36.304.

35. All of the violations alleged herein are readily achievable to modify to bring the Facility and Property into compliance with the ADA.

36. Upon information and good faith belief, the removal of the physical barriers and dangerous conditions present at the Facility and Property is readily achievable because the nature and cost of the modifications are relatively low.

37. Upon information and good faith belief, the removal of the physical barriers and dangerous conditions present at the Facility and Property is readily achievable because Defendant has the financial resources to make the necessary modifications.

38. In instances where the 2010 ADAAG standards do not apply, the 1991 ADAAG standards apply, and all of the alleged violations set forth herein can be modified to comply with the 1991 ADAAG standards.

39. Plaintiff is without adequate remedy at law, is suffering irreparable harm, and reasonably anticipates that he will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless and until Defendant is required to remove the physical barriers, dangerous conditions and ADA violations that exist at the Facility and Property, including those alleged herein.

40. Plaintiff's requested relief serves the public interest.

41. The benefit to Plaintiff and the public of the relief outweighs any resulting detriment to Defendant.

42. Plaintiff's counsel is entitled to recover its reasonable attorney's fees and costs of litigation from Defendant pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 12188 and 12205.

43. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a), this Court is provided authority to grant injunctive relief to Plaintiff, including the issuance of an Order directing Defendant to modify the Facility and Property to the extent required by the ADA.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays as follows:

- (a) That the Court find Defendant in violation of the ADA and ADAAG;
- (b) That the Court issue a permanent injunction enjoining Defendant from continuing its discriminatory practices;
- (c) That the Court issue an Order requiring Defendant to (i) remove the physical barriers to access and (ii) alter the subject Facility and Property to make them readily accessible to, and useable by, individuals with disabilities to the extent required by the ADA;
- (d) That the Court award Plaintiff's counsel reasonable attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs; and
- (e) That the Court grant such further relief as deemed just and equitable in light of the circumstances.

Dated: January 12, 2024.

Respectfully submitted,
